- I. Carroll Hargrove opened the meeting at 18:30, with the Pledge Of Allegiance.
- II. Minutes for the 04NOV10 RGC meeting were read by, Ron Courts; MS&P.
- III. Treasurer's report was provided by Ernie Edmonston; the Club began previous month with $74,574.64, ending the month with $71,166.11; MS&P.
- IV. OLD BUSINESS:
  - A. Ernie said he went to the BLM yesterday, they had nothing new to update us on at this time.
  - B. Mr. Adcock reported that they already had about a dozen pre-registered for the Appleseed shoot this next weekend.
- V. NEW BUSINESS:
  - A. Carroll thanked the membership for the card he was given after the passing of his Mother this past week. The Club's caring is greatly appreciated.
  - B. We had a member that had difficulty with the front gate padlock, and had to go out the Old Clovis Hwy. gate. We had to get a locksmith out there and ended up with a bill for a new lock and key work.
  - C. Ernie presented the Zia Gun Club newsletter to make us aware of some of the funding requirements they have to meet having a State Land lease. We are fortunate to own our range now.
  - D. Ron let the members know that there was going to be a Silver Spur, Gun Show up in Albuquerque, on the 11th & 12th of December.
  - E. Mr. Adcock proposed to do another Appleseed shoot on the 19th & 20th of March 2011; this seemed to meet with the approval of the membership.
  - F. Carroll brought up that we needed to get organized for the next elections [3FEB2010]. Mr. John Thoesen {623-3629} volunteered to organize the ballots for the February elections. It was said to contact Mr. Thoesen, or any Club Officer/Board Member if You have interest in running for office.
  - G. We will be having the Annual Banquet on 5MAR2010 to introduce the newly elected Board & Officers to the membership. We are still open to a new location for the banquet if the membership has any suggestions.
- VI. Motion to Adjourn @ 19:06; 15 present for meeting.
- VII. No Board Meeting Tonight.
