- I. Carroll Hargrove, opened the meeting at 18:32, with the Pledge Of Allegiance.
- II. Minutes for the 07JAN10 RGC meeting were read by Ron Courts; MS&P.
- III. Treasurer's report was provided by Ernie Edmonston; the Club began the month of January with $62,697.81, ending the month with $66,6505.22; MS&P.
- IV. OLD BUSINESS:
  - A. Carroll reminded everyone to attend the Annual Banquet at La Posta on Saturday, 6MAR10. Everyone was encouraged to also bring a gift donation for the drawing that night.
  - B. Carroll announced that Lee Jensen has stepped down as Range Officer, but he will keep on working to complete the BLM purchase.
  - C. Bob Tucker reported that he had spoken with the local head of the BLM about their working with the Club on the current land acquisition on the Range entrance road.
  - D. Carroll said that with the new Board we will contact the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation about what can be done as a joint venture.
  - E. Carroll encouraged the membership to get involved in the Applesed Project shoot mentioned in last month's minutes.
- V. NEW BUSINESS:
  - A. Bob Scribner asked about the steel at Goode Welding, if it could be used for the new Rifle Match? He reported that it had been moved to Arrowhead Welding [Sam Morley's place]. Carroll told Bob to get with Sam on getting the targets made. Ernie said we needed to replace some 50m chickens as well.
  - B. Jerry King reported that there are neighbors complaining about the noise from the Capitan Range. In Texas they have a State law protecting closures of existing ranges as open, adjacent land is developed. We need to work toward a similar protective law for New Mexico to protect encroachment near our range, and similar facilities in the State.
  - C. Carroll announced that there was a tie for the sixth Board Member between Danny Moore and Roy Vargas. Carroll asked for a show of hands between the two men, and the winner was Danny Moore.
- VI. Motion to Adjourn @ 19:09; 35 present for meeting.
- VII. Carroll gathered the new Board together to congratulate them, and let them know they officially take office 1MAR2010.
